Proposal for Maintenance of the Polk County Rural Addressing System

To Commissioners Court, Polk County, Texas
 From Design/Graphics, Livingston Texas
 Date February 12, 1997

The Rural Addressing and Mapping Project will soon be completed and Polk County residents will be notified of their new physical addresses. This has been a difficult task made even harder with the population growth that Polk County has experienced in the last three or four years. But the benefits of the hard work on your part will be very apparent. The objective will now be to maintain and improve upon the information collected so far. A good maintenance program needs to be established at this point and should accomplish the following:

- 1 The telephone companies will be responsible for occupant or telephone number changes that occur where a street address currently exists. This information will be posted through the Automatic Location Indicator (ALI) system in the 911 dispatch office. But this information will need to be transferred to the computerized map.
- 2 The location, delineation, name, and address range for any newly constructed roads will need to be posted on the map. Each commissioner should coordinate with the maintenance office for development of this information. Proposed road names for subdivisions should be reviewed for duplication, etc.
- 3 New construction will need to be precisely located for assigning an address.
- 4 Map books will need constant maintenance.

Design/Graphics wishes to propose a maintenance agreement to accomplish these tasks, and has developed a method of compensation that will not require any money from the general fund, and in the case of map books, would actually generate royalties back to the county.

After communication with John McDowell, Polk County Emergency Service Coordinator, it has been determined that his office could collect an additional fee of $25.00 on new construction permits. This fee would be used to compensate Design/Graphics for accomplishing Items 2 through 3 in the list above and

As for Item 4, Design/Graphics would agree to a cost plus $2.00 per book rate. This would not have to be an exclusive item in the agreement between Design/Graphics and Polk County.

Proposal for Maintenance of the Polk County Rural Addressing System

To Commissioners Court, Polk County, Texas
 From. Design/Graphics, Livingston Texas
 Date February 12, 1997

The Rural Addressing and Mapping Project will soon be completed and Polk County residents will be notified of their new physical addresses. This has been a difficult task made even harder with the population growth that Polk County has experienced in the last three or four years. But the benefits of the hard work on your part will be very apparent. The objective will now be to maintain and improve upon the information collected so far. A good maintenance program needs to be established at this point and should accomplish the following:

- 1 The telephone companies will be responsible for occupant or telephone number changes that occur where a street address currently exists. This information will be posted through the Automatic Location Indicator (ALI) system in the 911 dispatch office. But this information will need to be transferred to the computerized map.
- 2 The location, delineation, name, and address range for any newly constructed roads will need to be posted on the map. Each commissioner should coordinate with the maintenance office for development of this information. Proposed road names for subdivisions should be reviewed for duplication, etc.
- 3 New construction will need to be precisely located for assigning an address.
- 4 Map books will need constant maintenance.

Design/Graphics wishes to propose a maintenance agreement to accomplish these tasks, and has developed a method of compensation that will not require any money from the general fund, and in the case of map books, would actually generate royalties back to the county.

After communication with John McDowell, Polk County Emergency Service Coordinator, it has been determined that his office could collect an additional fee of $25.00 on new construction permits. This fee would be used to compensate Design/Graphics for accomplishing Items ~~1~~ 2 through 3 in the list above.

As for Item 4, Design/Graphics would agree to a cost plus $2.00 per book rate. This would not have to be an exclusive item in the agreement between Design/Graphics and Polk County.
