

ORDER

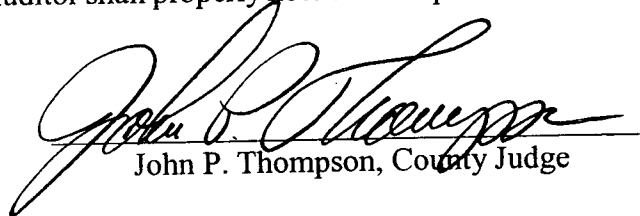

OF THE POLK COUNTY COMMISSIONERS COURT

Designating Surplus Property to be disposed in (on-line) Public Auction and, if no bids are received, to be destroyed as worthless.

WHEREAS, in a regular meeting of the Polk County Commissioners Court held January 10, 2012, certain items as listed and attached hereto as "Exhibit A", were determined to be surplus property as defined by Local Government Code, Chapter 263 Subchapter D, Section 263.151.;

THEREFORE, the aforementioned items on listed on Exhibit "A" of this Order are hereby designated as Surplus Property of the County and shall be disposed of in a Public Auction to be held online by the County's contracted auctioneer and administered by the County Auditor.

BE IT FURTHER ORDERED, that any or all of the property listed on Exhibit "A" of this Order may be destroyed as worthless if the County undertakes to sell that property (in an on-line auction) and is unable to do so because no bids are made. In this instance, the Auditor shall properly note such disposition for each item so destroyed.

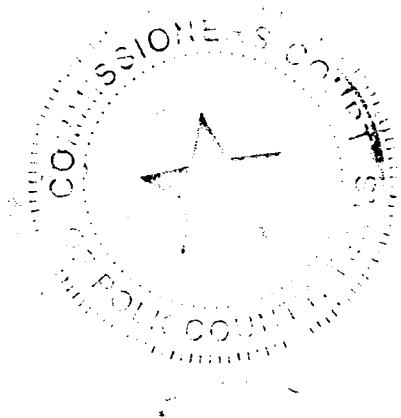

John P. Thompson, County Judge

Items left in building.

The items listed below were set in one area on the stage in the Dunbar Gym. The items listed were verbally claimed by members of The Committee to Save Dunbar as well as some citizens claiming to be affiliated with the committee. The committee was given notice in writing to remove the items no later than 12/16/2011 from the County Judge's office. Instructions on the process needed to remove these items were given in that notice. As of this date 12/20/11 these items still remain in the building. Due to the construction in the building these items need to be removed as soon as possible. The Polk County Maintenance Department will remove these items from the building on 12/21/2011 and store at the maintenance shop until Commissioners Court gives directives on the disposition of these items.
