

NATIONAL CRIME VICTIMS' RIGHTS WEEK
April 24 - 30, 2022

WHEREAS, being a victim of crime and navigating the criminal justice system can be a frightening and confusing experience, and

WHEREAS, progress in improving the treatment of crime victims has been made through the efforts of thousands of victims and survivors who have turned their own experiences into a force for positive change, ensuring that others can receive justice, meaningful assistance, and compassionate treatment before the law, and

WHEREAS, since the passage of the Victims of Crime Act of 1984, and through the dedicated work of advocates, lawmakers, and victim service providers, there is a growing array of services and resources available to victims and their loved ones, and

WHEREAS, honoring the rights of victims—including the rights to be heard and to be treated with fairness, dignity, and respect—and working to meet their needs rebuilds their trust in the criminal justice and social service systems, and

WHEREAS, individuals' trust in the compassion, understanding, and support of their communities are achieved through sustained, deep-rooted, and coordinated outreach, and WHEREAS, identifying, reaching, and serving all victims of crime—especially those from groups that often have less access to healing services and avenues to justice—is essential, and

WHEREAS, our community's continued engagement with the challenges faced by victims of crime will ensure that the progress made to date is not lost, and that new ground is broken to gain greater justice and healing for all victims, and

WHEREAS, National Crime Victims' Rights Week provides an opportunity to recommit to ensuring that accessible, appropriate, and trauma-informed services are offered to all victims of crime, and

WHEREAS, the Polk County Commissioner's Court are hereby dedicated to supporting victims and survivors in the aftermath of crime, building trust among our clients, collaborating with other service providers, and engaging our community in response efforts, now therefore be it

RESOLVED, that I, Sydney Murphy, County Judge of Polk County, Texas do hereby proclaim the week of APRIL 24-30, 2022, as CRIME VICTIMS' RIGHTS WEEK in Polk County, reaffirming this County's commitment to creating a victim service and criminal justice response that assists all victims of crime during Crime Victims' Rights Week and throughout the year; and expressing our sincere gratitude and appreciation for those community members, victim service providers, and criminal justice professionals who are committed to improving our response to assistance, support, justice, and peace.

Sydney Murphy
Judge, Polk County
