NO HARM AGREEMENT

In consideration for using property belonging to Blanchard Baptist Church (aka, a privately owned property), I understand that being giving permission to use property belonging to Blanchard Baptist Church, Blanchard Baptist Church does not guarantee nor imply any protection from violent acts. Any fees required prior to use of said property do not imply any rental or lease agreement. Said fees are only used to offset any expense Blanchard Baptist Church incurs while allowing church property to be used. Any monetary contributions made to Blanchard Baptist Church will be received by the church as an offering and in no way constitutes a rental or lease agreement. The signer understands and acknowledges that Blanchard Baptist Church is not liable for nor responsible for their safety, the safety of persons with their organization, nor the safety of anyone on the property of Blanchard Baptist Church in association with their organization's use of church property.
